Beds

By Mary Quattlebaum • Art by Claudine Gévry

A bird has a nest
where she likes to rest.

A whale has the sea

and the monkey a tree.

Puppy has a lap
where she likes to nap.

And I have a bed
with a pillow and spread.

Sing Me a Song

Can You?

(To the tune of "London Bridge Is Falling Down")

By Stacy Hart • Art by Martha Lightfoot

Can you bend and touch your toes,
Touch your toes, touch your toes?
Can you bend and touch your toes,
My friend Micah?

Then he snipped my hair. It tickled.
I couldn't help myself. I giggled.

My haircut's done and it looks great.
When can I come back?
Can't wait!

Sweet Little One

By Rikki B. Romerez • Art by James Bernardin

You're my little enchilada
In a terry-towel wrap.
Sweet apple empanada
Snuggled in my lap.
