Tell Me a Story
City and Country
By Sharon Chriscoe • Art by Jo Moon
Honk! Honk! says the truck.
Toot! Toot! says the train.
Splish! Splash! go the wipers on the cars out in the rain.

Baa! Baa! says the sheep.
Quack! Quack! says the duck.

Woof! Woof! says the farmer's dog as he jumps into the truck.

One, Two, Three

By Cathy Cronin • Art by Deborah Melmon

One kiss for Mommy.

Two waves bye-bye.

Three big steps then

Whee! Down the slide!

Tell Me a Story

Blankie Time

By Jill Belisle • Art by Nancy Cote

My blankie is soft as a blankie can be.
When I get into bed, it's waiting for me.

Every morning I see it, yellow and green.
When I wrap it around me, I feel like a queen.

At lunchtime I use it for catching my drips.

At playtime it makes a good sail for my ships.

But the best part of all is my afternoon nap,
when I snuggle with Mom up in her lap.

Sing Me a Song

I'm Your Little Sippy Cup

(To the tune of "I'm a Little Teapot")

By Heidi Bee Roemer • Art by Amy Cartwright

I'm your little sippy cup,
Short and stout.
Here is my handle.
Here is my spout.

When you're feeling thirsty, then I'll shout,
"Tip me over and my juice drips out!"
