Hello, hat and mittens.
Hello, boots and coat.

When you read, point to the items mentioned in the story. Then describe how each item keeps the child warm. Talk about what your child wears to stay warm.

Clap, clap, clap,
Wheee!

Baby sees me!

As you read, help your baby clap, clap, clap. On the words wheee and wooo, stretch your baby's hands out wide. Personalize the poem by using your baby's name instead of baby.

Bicycle

Look for the objects on this page and describe how they're used. Then talk about the car. What's in the car? How many presents? When the people get in the car, where might they go?

Three sheep stretch up high and yawn.

Read the story several times, then talk about what the different sheep are doing. Make connections between the sheep's bedtime routine and your child's routine.

Blue Bunny

Poem and Art by Nancy Cote

Blue bunny rabbit
With eyes so bright
Stays awake
All through the night,
Quietly, without a peep,
Watching as I fall asleep.
