Do you know? Do you know?

Read Me a Poem

Mama's Monkey

By Charlotte Gunnulson ▼ Art by Hiroe Nakata

Mama has a monkey,
A silly-willy monkey.
Mama has a monkey
Bouncing on her knee.

Act out this poem as you read it to your little monkey. Later, when you reread the poem, stress the /m/ sounds in mama and monkey and help your child think of other words that begin with that sound.

Mama hugs the monkey,
The silly-willy monkey.
Mama hugs the monkey
And the monkey is me! M

Sing Me a Song

Rock and Sing

(To the tune of "Row, Row, Row Your Boat")

By Stacy Hart ✦ Art by Nina de Polonia

Rock, rock, rock and sing.
Rock and sing with me.
It's almost time to go to sleep,
But now it's time to sing.

Before you sing the last verse, you could add more verses:
Rock, rock, rock and clap. Rock and clap with me....
Rock, rock, rock and yawn. Rock and yawn with me....

Rock, rock, rock with me.
Close your eyes to dream.
Now it's time to go to sleep.
Good night, my love, sweet dreams.

Read Me a Poem

Papa's Little Patty-Cakes

By Heidi Bee Roemer • Art by Claire Keay

Patty-cakes, patty-cakes.
Papa picks her up and holds her.

Read the poem and talk about how the girl looks when Papa picks her up and swings her. Does she look happy? Then ask your child if he would like you to flip him on your shoulder. If he says yes, enjoy acting this out with your little one.

Papa swings her high and low
And flips her on his shoulder! 11
